Mardi Gras Parade Up and Running

McCall, Idaho, Dec. 11, 2007 – The Winter Carnival Committee announced today that Chamber Director and long time McCall resident, Tamara Sandmeyer has volunteered to chair the Mardi Gras Parade this year. The committee also announced that Sandmeyer will pair up with parade emcee, Dennis Ackermann to make this year’s parade better than ever!

Ackermann has been a part of the McCall Winter Carnival for many years, including being past parade emcee to building snow sculptures for local businesses. “With all he does for the community, he was a simple choice as this year’s emcee,” explained Sandmeyer.

“The parade is such a big part of the Winter Carnival and one of the favorite events for both locals and visitors alike, I thought being the chairman would be a great way for me to get involved on behalf of the chamber,” said Sandmeyer. “I am excited to be able to take part in the Mardi Gras Parade and would like to encourage businesses and associations to take part this year!”

The Parade will be on Saturday, January 26, 2008 at Noon and the route begins at McCall High School and ends at McCall Elementary School. The committee is still looking for floats and participants for the Parade. To sign-up call Tamara Sandmeyer at (208) 634-7631 or to sign-up online go to www.mccallwintercarnival.com.
