Snow Sculptures On Demand for the Winter Carnival

McCall, Idaho, Nov. 5, 2007 –Have a snow sculpture in front of your business during the Winter Carnival without even getting your hands cold! That’s right, just contact the McCall Winter Carnival Committee and they will contract a snow sculptor to create a unique sculpture within your chosen budget that follows this year’s Wild, Wild West theme.

“McCall residents expressed their wish to see more snow sculptures around town during the Winter Carnival to make it more reminiscent of years ago when there were twice as many sculptures as there have been in recent years.” said Tamara Sandmeyer, Executive Director McCall Chamber of Commerce. “The Winter Carnival Committee has responded to these requests by setting up an opportunity that will take all the work out of their hands yet still allow residents and businesses to benefit from having their own sculpture.”

If you are interested in this offer email the committee at wintercarnival@infuzemarketing.com by December 1, 2007.
