Laugh Out Loud at Winter Carnival Comedy Night!

McCall, Idaho, Jan. 15, 2008 – Come to Northfork Lodge to experience some of the best entertainment in Idaho. The night will feature local radio personality and stand-up comedian Branden Rathert as the emcee, who is funny enough by himself but the fun doesn't stop there, comedian Jim Trino will be next in store for your laughing pleasure. In addition, live music by award winning local musicians Rebecca Scott and Debbie Sager will continue throughout the night. This first ever event for the Winter Carnival, sponsored by Tracypaintworks and Lake Fork Merc, will make its debut on January 25, 2008 from 8:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m. Doors open at 7:30 p.m., tickets are $20 and include all entertainment, as well as food.

Featured musicians, Rebecca Scott and Debbie Sager have won several coveted Idaho awards. Scott has been named Best Singer for multiple years in the Boise Weekly's Best of Boise Readers' Choice Awards and was also voted in the top three for Best Local Musician several times, while winning the award in 2005 and 2006. She was also named the top "Mover & Shaker" in Boise entertainment by the Idaho Statesman's Thrive Magazine.

Comedian Jim Trino has been described as "electric honesty." He is coming to McCall from Bakersfield, California and has been a regular entertainer at several popular comedy clubs in his home state. "His comedy is the kind of adult entertainment we have been waiting for in McCall," said Comedy Night Chair, Tracy Freelon.
